

ONE CENT—LAST EDITION—ONE CENT

FAIRBANKS HUGHES' RUNNING MATE

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 5, NO. 217

Chicago, Saturday, June 10, 1916

398

JUSTICE HUGHES AND THEODORE ROOSEVELT ARE NOMINATED

Progressives Ignore Colonel's Indorsement of Henry
Cabot Lodge—Radicals Wreck Steam Roller of Perkins—G. O. P. Selects Hughes on Third Ballot.

Charles E. Hughes and Theodore Roosevelt are the winners in the big political battle that has been going on in Chicago for the past week. The Progressives finally put over the man they originally wanted in a unanimous vote for T. R. After two ballots failed to bring out a leader Friday afternoon for the Republicans a third was taken at noon today and Hughes emerged with a big majority.

His nomination was then also made unanimous.

Chairman Harding of the Republican convention sent a telegram to Hughes telling him of the results in Chicago. Word is expected from him some time today or tonight.

A telegram was also sent to Roosevelt from the Progressive headquarters announcing the result of both conventions. T. R. said he would